ment of mines, farms, factories, mills, railrais and trade, and all other practical sources of the commen weal.

Two editions of the paper are pre-eminently suited for Southern raading—the Weekly and the Tri-Weekly.

The Weekly, issued every Thursday, is a compact rews, agricultural and family paper, unexcelled for cultivators of the soil and their families. Its market reports have given that edition a special reputation. Numerous special departments are projected and managed so as to attract every household and all the members thereof. Several half-tone pictures appear in each number. Price, $1 a year.

The Tri-Weekly, printed Monday, Wednesday and Friday, is a handsome, spirited and condensed every-other-day daily newspaper, easily the best publication of its class in the United States. It has all the special features of the Weekly and the important news of the Daily, and is printed and mailed at the same time as the Daily. The news—clean, accurate and fairly prosented—is admirably displayed secording to its value, and is never distorted. For political news you cannot find any better newspaper, and the news is given without any political bias. The edisorial page breathes the spirit of pures; patriotism and broadest charity, untainted by any consideration caye the welfare of the home and the country. Its reviews are pungent, wise and witty. The Tri-Weekly, $1.50 a year. Sam-
